

This is the second of a series of notices, that will pop up in our parish newsletter on the last weekend of the month.

What is it all about?

Your Parish Council has been developing an action plan for this year with the Laudato Si' Action Platform.

Pope Francis has urged us all to play our part in caring for creation, to care for our common home.

He has urged us to work towards seven goals over the coming years.

You can read more about the goals here.

So, part of our action plan is to publish a few ideas each month in the newsletter and on social media; simple, practical suggestions that will help us move closer to the goals.

Suggestion for today:

- Let us consider our personal investments and superannuation, and ask ourselves whether the ethical values of the companies we invest in, are in line with our own values. Here are some resources to help us get started.
