St. Joseph's and St Anthony's Bracken Ridge and Bald Hills

Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel–4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C (Luke 4:21-30)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

This week's gospel reading continues the story of Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth. At first he is universally accepted: the people of Nazareth marvel at the gracious words he utters. They identify him as Joseph's son. By the end of the story, however, these same people actually try to kill him. So, what happens in between to cause such a dramatic change of heart? These are religious people, not an unruly street mob. They are friends of the family. They are familiar with their sacred texts and traditions and presumably want to understand them more fully. In fact, they are like many of us who take time out on a weekly basis to come together for worship and prayer.

The people of Nazareth seem to be carrying a sense of exclusive entitlement to God's favour, as well as some deeply entrenched prejudices against the neighbouring Syrians and Phoenicians. Their history is largely one of conflict with neighbours, of struggle for survival, and some are unwilling to relinquish their unhealed local and ethnic grievances. This story is about power and control. When Jesus suggests that God's prophetic and healing power is accessible to and may even be more readily received among foreigners than within Israel, the anger of those who consider themselves "the chosen" knows no bounds: it spills over into violence. They have little patience with the implicit criticism of their attitudes to outsiders and the challenge of his prophetic words.

One of the problems with the narrative is that Jesus seems to be deliberately provoking a negative reaction. There are other problems as well: there is no cliff in Nazareth from which the enraged crowd could cast him to his death, and it is highly unlikely that people of this tiny town of two to four hundred Galilean Jews would resort to murdering one of their own for what they see as a verbal assault. So what is going on? It would seem that the gospel writer is putting elements of later stories about the violent treatment of Jesus and his followers into this episode in order to foreshadow what is to come.

The story thus becomes a microcosm of the gospel as a whole.

When the message is comforting, the messenger is well received. When it is less palatable, the messenger is in danger of being attacked or manipulated, more often than not at the hands of people who are basically good people like us. Unchecked assumptions, deep-seated biases, and uncontrolled emotions will function to bring the anointed prophet of the God of Israel to a violent death.

This story invites us to check our assumptions and our biases lest we turn to physical, verbal, or emotional violence in the face of a prophetic challenge.

pray for the success of this Council.

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen. Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St. Mary MacKillop, pray for us. Amen.

St. Joseph's School.

Welcome back to the start of the new school year and a fond welcome to all our new families. Whilst I have been witness to more first school days than I care to remember, each one is special because of the wide eyed excitement of those having their first ever school day and the smiles of familiar friends coming back together after weeks apart. There are often quite a few parent smiles too, but I think that may be to do with the prospect of a little peace at home. I hope you were able to have a holiday and the chance to spend some fun time with family. I am a little proud of myself as I actually completed some of the jobs at home that I bought the materials for last Christmas holidays and let sit there for a year untouched. I did come to the Working Bee we held here and was joined by over twenty mums and dads who did a great job helping to prepare the grounds for the start of our school year. This was despite it being a hot morning. Thank you so much to everyone who attended. Gary Creevey.

Care for Creation News.

The Parish's Care for Creation group is presenting a video called 'Global Healing' to help guide and inspire us following Pope Francis' appeal in Laudato Si' to 'Care For Our Common Home'. The video, especially designed for parishes, will be shown at 7.30pm. on Thursday 28/2 in the Parish Centre. Fr. Gerry is inviting each Parish Ministry Group to choose 2 representatives from their group to attend this formation evening. Please RSVP to pbugden4@bigpond.com. <http://stjosephsbrackenridgecareforcreation.weebly.com> is our Care for Creation website and Facebook page. It has lots of useful resources that may be of interest. We value your feedback on any improvements we can make. With Pope Francis we pray: "That we may take good care of creation – a gift freely given – cultivating and protecting it for future generations. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen". The Parish Care for Creation Group meets in the Parish Centre at 4.45pm., on the third Saturday of each month. All very welcome. Enq Rosemary and Peter Bugden .

The Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans (ACRATH) –

-and the Catholic Justice and Peace Commission of the Archdiocese of Brisbane invite you to a Mass to celebrate the life of St Bakhita and to pray for victims of human trafficking. This will be on 8th February at 7:30pm., at the Cathedral of St. Stephen. Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Mark Coleridge. The celebration will be enhanced by the involvement of a choir from the South Sudanese Catholic community as St. Bakhita is also the patron saint of South Sudan. Light refreshments will be provided after Mass. RSVP: cjpc@bne.catholic.net.au | 3324 3451. St. Josephine Bakhita is the patron saint of those trafficked into modern day slavery. She herself was sold into slavery and treated cruelly by her slave masters until, with the help of the Canossian Sisters, she was liberated and then became a Canossian Sister. The tragedy of it all is that there are more people in slavery today around the world than there were when slavery was legal. Slavery exists today, right here among us and is happening under our noses. Australia is a destination for trafficked people who are used for a variety of purposes. Please visit the ACRATH website (acrath.org.au) for more information and links regarding human trafficking issues. Let us work together to make a difference.

Together.

I dreamed I stood in a studio
And watched two sculptors there,
The clay they used was a young child's mind
And they fashioned it with care.
One was a teacher; the tools being used
Were books and music and art,
One a parent with a guiding hand
And a gentle loving heart.
Day after day the teacher toiled
With touch that was deft and sure,
While the parent laboured just as hard
And polished and smoothed it over.
When at last their task was done
They were proud of what they had wrought,
For the things they had moulded into the child
Could neither be sold nor bought.
And both agreed they would have failed
If they had worked alone;
For behind the parent stood the school
And behind the teacher, the home.
