Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

(Mark 10:46-52)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

What is it that we fail to see? Today's gospel reading brings to closure a long section of Mark's gospel that focuses on the journey of Jesus and his disciples from Caesarea Philippi in the north to Jericho in the south. Jericho is the final staging point in the journey to Jerusalem where the final act of the gospel drama will be played out. This section of the gospel (8:27-10:52) is prefaced by the story of a blind man who comes to sight in stages and ends with the story of another blind man, Bartimaeus, who comes from blindness to sight, as well as from insight to greater insight, and joins Jesus on the journey to Jerusalem. On the intervening journey, Jesus endeavours to lead the Twelve out of their metaphorical blindness into an understanding of what it means to follow a suffering messiah. They remain for some time in their blindness, as subsequent events will demonstrate.

The narrator creates an impression of urgency at this point in Mark's gospel. "They" come to Jericho and then leave. The intervention of Bartimaeus, who tries to attract the attention of Jesus by calling out from the roadside, threatens to delay the journey. When he cries out for mercy, many "rebuke" him. This is a strong word. It is used of people in the crowd who neither share the depth of Bartimaeus' faith nor grasp the nature of Jesus' mission of gathering in "the remnant of Israel, among them the blind and the lame" (Jeremiah 31:8). Those who try to silence Bartimaeus are a bit like the family of Jesus who tried to protect him from himself (Mark 3:31).

When it is clear that the perception of the "many" is not shared by Jesus, we have an almost comical scene in which they do a complete about-face. It seems they want to please the authority figure no matter what. Bartimaeus offers a stark contrast to these people. He knows that Jesus has the power to bring the mercy of God into his life and the lives of those who wait by the roadside with faith in their hearts. He receives the assurance from Jesus that his faith has made him well.

We can probably find some reflection of ourselves in all the characters in today's story. At times we are aware of our blindness and wait desperately by the roadside for the right person or circumstances to come along and give us the heart to rise up and live the journey of faith.

At times, we are like the many who think we know what is best for others and who try to silence the voices of those who interfere with our plans. At other times, we respond to the cries for mercy and stretch out our hands to gather in those whose disabilities might otherwise exclude them.

All Souls' Day.

On Friday 2/11, Mass will be celebrated at 9am. and 7pm., in remembrance of all our family and friends, who have gone before us to our heavenly home. All are warmly welcome to remember with us. A cuppa will be available for those who would like to stay a while after Mass.

This is a gathering of the whole church – in Australia in which all are invited to have a say about the future of the Catholic Church in our country. An opportunity is available to gather with a small group to share thoughts on the question: 'What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?' It is anticipated that gatherings will be held after each of the weekend Masses 6pm, 7:30 am and 9am on a date to be advised. The session will take about 45 minutes. If you are interested in joining one of these discussions, would you please add your name to the list on the paper table. You are also welcome to reflect on this question and submit your response online at www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au Please join us in praying for the success of this Council.

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.

St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

Following on from the Royal Commission.

At the end of February 2018, the parish published the final weekly update on the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse and committed to monitoring internet sources for new information and providing it through the parish newsletter. This is our follow on. On 22 October, the day of the National Apology by the Prime Minister Scott Morrison, Archbishop Mark Coleridge said abuse perpetrated by priests, brothers, sisters and lay people was "an utter betrayal of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and it should never have happened". The Church renews "our profound and heartfelt apology to all victims and survivors of abuse and to their families, friends and supporters, who have shared their suffering". A joint ACBC / CRA statement may be read here. <https://tinyurl.com/y8tugzbb> On Sunday 21 October, a new shrine was unveiled in the Cathedral of St Stephen and dedicated to all victims / survivors of sexual abuse. A 1m 31s video may be viewed here. <https://tinyurl.com/yd7tvstz>

It's Blackall Fete Update.

"Thank You" to those parishioners who have responded so positively to Sharyn McLagan's informative Presentation at last weekend's Masses. As a result there has been lots of interest in what we do at Blackall and questions about the best way to assist our Sister Parish with their Fete. I know Sharyn covered it all but if you have any further questions please phone any of our Team - John & Sharyn Rogers, Greg & Sharyn McLagan, Maurice & Glenda Murdoch. Donations can be placed in the box at the rear of the Church or contact the above for collection. Sunday 18/11, 9am. will be last date donation can be accepted. Suggested items are household goods, towels, crockery, cutlery, cooking utensils, toys, games and Golden Casket Scratchies of any value. Pre-loved goods are unacceptable for the Stall. Only NEW Items please. Michael and Debbie Dee Gee will add another dimension to our Team in November. We know the people of Blackall will take them into their hearts. Rain has been patchy (10-22ml) in and around the town this week but it will only serve to delay the de-stocking of cattle. Donations can be placed in the box at the rear of the Church or contact a member of the Team.

To the People of God of the Archdiocese of Brisbane.

The painting of the patron of the Archdiocese, St. Mary MacKillop, copies of which are in our parish churches, will soon have a permanent home in one of the turrets at the front of the cathedral. Beneath it will stand a marble image of the Sacred Heart from the cathedral before the 1989 renovation, keeping in mind that the full name of the Congregation founded by St Mary MacKillop is the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart. I have also decided that in this space we will entrust all victims and survivors of sexual abuse to the intercession of St Mary MacKillop, who knew the pain of the victim and the strength of the survivor. The turret will contain a candle and inscription remembering those who have been abused and their loved ones, and entrusting them to the loving intercession of Mother Mary of the Cross. The candle will stand on stone from Jerusalem, linking the memorial to the whole story of salvation. In the turret we will also place another marble from old St Stephen's – an image of the crucifixion with Mary and John beneath the Cross. The one on the Cross represents all who have been abused and the two figures beneath the Cross represent their family and friends who have shared their suffering. The new shrine will be dedicated during 10.00am Mass in the cathedral on Sunday 21 October. This will be the day before the national apology to the victims and survivors of abuse in the parliament in Canberra. So the dedication of the new shrine will be a simple way for the Archdiocese of Brisbane to share deeply, sincerely and permanently in the apology to all who have been abused, but especially those who have been abused in the Church. May this be a powerful and enduring response inspired by the Gospel which so inspired St Mary MacKillop to respond to the needs of her own time. Archbishop of Brisbane.
