St. Joseph's and St Anthony's Bracken Ridge and Bald Hills

Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-4th Sunday of Lent
Year C

(Luke 15:1-3, 11-32)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

Unfailing forgiveness and arms open to welcome back wayward sons and daughters is a key motif in today's gospel story. There is no room in the hearts of Jesus' critics for such forgiveness: upright law-abiding people should exclude "sinners" from their company. In a first-century Jewish context, it was easy enough to be a sinner. Whole groups of people, depending on their occupation, fell into that category simply because they failed to observe one or more of the 618 prescriptions of the law. Jesus' response to critics is the story of a parent whose adult children lose their way. One son finds his way back to the centre of family life and the support of the wider community while the other more law-abiding son seems to place himself outside the family circle, holding on to the resentment he feels at his sibling's return.

We need to attend to the gaps in the story: there may be daughters as well as sons in the family; there is surely another parent, a mother who shares the heartache of her husband when their younger son requests his share of the estate. To make such a request in this context is tantamount to wishing his parents dead. The older brother is not disadvantaged: he is assured of a two-thirds share according to the law as well as the ongoing love and support of his family, as his father makes clear.

The contrast between the young man's acquisitive nature and his parents' capacity to relinquish substantial property in the interests of relationship is striking. No motive is offered for the son's readiness to break all his ties and get as far away as he can. In the distant country, he squanders both his inheritance and his identity. A "severe famine" becomes the catalyst for his change of direction. Famine in any age means devastation of the earth that can lead to displacement, to broken relationships and even to global conflicts. In turning back, the young man shows no real interest in a restored relationship with his family or ancestral lands. Rather, he devises a plan that will put food in his belly. He composes a speech about having sinned against his father and against God and about being prepared to share the status of the servants. Thanks to the expansive heart of an extraordinarily compassionate parent, he does not have to deliver the speech he has prepared. Famine becomes feast. So it is with our merciful God. We abandon, even betray. We waste the bounty of Earth.

Our motives for returning to the sources of love and community are very mixed, and yet our merciful God is ever ready, with our cooperation, to turn famine into feast. For that to happen in our times, we must turn away from our acquisitive, wasteful ways and respond as one to the pain of our planetary home.

St. Joseph's School.

These Easter holidays will see the final sections of asbestos being removed from buildings. Internal walls in Block D (Uniform shop block) are to be removed as will one remaining wall in the tuckshop. This work will necessitate sections of the school being out of bounds for students attending Vacation Care. Entry to and from OSHC should be via the Eldorado St Carpark. The OSHC providers are well aware of safety zones for the children. The asbestos will be removed in week one of the holidays and the walls reinstalled in Week 2. There will be no access through the school centre during this time. Access to the Church from the Philips St Carpark will be via the netball courts. All work will be completed prior to the Easter Masses.

Fete News:

We'd like to announce that our Fete Convenors for 2019 are Robyn Seers, Dale and Bec Steindl. Many thanks to these parents who will lead our journey to the Fete. ### WAG - Blackall-Tambo Parish Update.

LENTEN RETREAT IN BLACKALL – HUGE SUCCESS. Once again St. Patrick's, Blackall say THANK YOU to St. Joseph's/St. Anthony's for your financial assistance to ensure that the idea of a Retreat in Blackall became a reality. On March 8th to 10th (the first weekend in Lent) the people of our Western Cluster (including Longreach, Barcaldine, Tambo, Alpha, Jericho, Jundah, Aramac, Morella, Isisford) were invited to a Lenten Retreat in Blackall led by two Verbum Dei Sisters based in Brisbane. This was a long - awaited event for the West and extremely appreciated by the retreatants who found it life-giving especially at a time when it is so easy to become lost in the worries and busyness of our world. Thank you again Bracken Ridge for your part in making this Retreat happen and as it is our desire to have another Retreat again next year it is our hope that you may be able to join us and be refreshed in Christ together! (Thankfully Blackall and surrounds have received between 85ml to 100mm of rain this week. This is not enough to end the drought but it's certainly a big boost to the Community. (Sharyn Rogers).

Become a Prison Chaplain.

Catholic men and women provide Pastoral Care to prisoners in the eleven Correctional Centres in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. Centacare currently seeks expressions of interests from men and women who would be interested to know more about the work of chaplains in the Correctional Centre at Woodford. Chaplains visit Woodford as part of the Catholic team every Friday. There is a brochure available in your church with more details. Training is provided and travel expenses reimbursed. It's a great way to make a real difference to someone's life through the Christian ministry of pastoral care, making known the love God has all for people. If you would like to discuss this role and its suitability for you, please call: Judy Norris, Director, Centacare Pastoral Ministries on 33243193. A reference from your Parish Priest is required along with all Archdiocesan safeguarding compliance requirements including Blue Card and police check.
