Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-Easter 2A, 23 April 2017 (John 20:19-31)

The liturgical readings and prayers for each Sunday between Easter and Pentecost invite us into different movements of the one great symphony of resurrection faith, writes Mercy Sister Veronica Lawson.

Not so long ago we used to speak of the Sundays 'after' Easter. The terminology has changed and we now speak of the Sundays 'of' Easter. In other words, we now recognise that the liturgical readings and prayers for each Sunday between Easter and Pentecost invite us into different movements of the one great symphony of resurrection faith.

The first scene in today's gospel has the disciples hiding behind closed doors "for fear" of those who had handed Jesus over to be executed by the Roman authorities. As supporters of someone executed on a political charge, they had reason to be fearful. Jesus appears among them, offers a greeting of peace, and tells them that he has been sent by God, his 'Father'. They receive from him the gift of the Holy Spirit. He sends them in turn to bring peace and to mediate the forgiveness of God through the power of the Spirit. The story invites us as believers to place ourselves in the shoes of the earliest disciples. It invites us to receive the gift of the Spirit, to emerge from behind the doors that close us in on ourselves and that prevent us from rising above the fear of reprisals in the pursuit of justice and peace.

The second and third scenes in today's gospel focus on Thomas who was not with the other disciples when Jesus first appeared in their midst. Thomas seems to trust only his own first hand experience. We all know people like Thomas. They test our patience because they seem to lack imagination. Then they make big statements when they come around to understanding what everyone else has known for a while. If we think, however, that those who hear in the first place are any better than Thomas, we need to note that the doors are still closed eight days later! The simple fact of knowing has not dispelled the fears. Even those who do believe and trust often need time to take the gospel message on board.

While Christians continue to celebrate Easter, our Jewish sisters and brothers have been marking Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day (April 27-28). We might join our prayers with theirs for the many who died at the hands of those who allowed their racial fears and prejudices to take unimaginable directions. We might also pray for the courage to challenge all forms of discrimination and shameful brutality in our own times and the strength to open our hearts and our homeland, without fear, to those who seek refuge among us.

WAG Update.

Welcome back after our break during Lent, allowing us to focus on the CARITAS appeal. Also welcome to our regular collections for our two outreach groups, South Sudan and Blackall/Tambo. This week the BUCKETS are out for South Sudan. We have passed the AUD $8,000 mark and we need to get to about $13,500 to equal the US $10,000 needed to fund Well Number 10. As for Blackall / Tambo, we recently sent off $2000 that had accumulated for that cause and we will continue to send whenever we reach that amount. As always, we thank everyone who supports these projects, your support means so much to the people in these two areas. St. Joseph's School Blackall will be having its 100 year Anniversary with celebrations 21 and 22/7. St. Patricks Church Blackall annual Christmas Fete will be held on 25/11. Photos of the Fete last November have now been added to the Album. We would be pleased to receive any craft donations for these events at any time. Business has been slow in the Shops and Cafes of Blackall since last October due to the hot weather. But after Easter when the temperature starts to cool the "Tourist Season" begins. Recently one of our Parishioners, Kerry Lewry, drove 960k out to Blackall and donated his time and talents over four days to help the town people prepare for the coming Tourist Season. The comment made to me was that he is an "awesome worker". "Thank You" Kerry! Don't forget to put your name and date of your Blackall visit in the front of the Photo Album and add any photos you would like to include. Many Thanks. John & Sharyn Rogers, Greg & Sharyn McLagan, Maurice and Glenda Murdoch. Enq. Sharyn, Sharyn,, or Glenda. Enq. Terry Tolhurst
