Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, 3 September 2017 (Matthew 16:21-27)

We all need to rethink our choices and to reorder our priorities from time to time if we want to find life, writes Sister Veronica Lawson rsm.

We all know people in leadership who take themselves a bit too seriously. Some confuse their role or title with their significance in the scheme of things. Some look for privilege and an easy life, forgetting that leadership of anything worthwhile involves hard work, misunderstanding, and invariably brings opposition. The first part of today's gospel story presents Peter, who has just been declared the foundation rock of the church and given the "keys" of the kin-dom, refusing to accept that Jesus' mission will involve suffering, even death. The reader is confronted in this story with the expansive rock face at Caesarea Philippi, and invited to consider the friable properties of the seemingly indestructible rock. Even rocks can be reduced to sand or gravel and a humbler mode of being.

For all its seriousness, there is something quite comical about this story as it unfolds. Peter actually censures or reprimands Jesus. Jesus then sets him straight in no uncertain terms. The "rock" becomes the leader of the opposition, a serious obstacle to God's purposes, a stumbling block. He is ordered back to the place where disciples properly belong, namely "behind" Jesus, "following" him. Matthew provides a striking contrast in this section of the gospel between Peter who "rebukes" Jesus and the Canaanite woman who respectfully and persistently implores Jesus to see from a new perspective. Peter receives a decisive rebuttal, while the woman's plea is heard and she herself is praised for her great faith.

Peter's impetuous outburst provides the trigger for Jesus to invite his disciples to think about what they really want. In Matthew's gospel, Jesus is the teacher and the disciples are the students who have accepted the invitation to follow him. That means living out in their lives the pattern of his life. If they really want to be his followers, then they have to embrace the pain involved in his relentless program of teaching and of healing the sick and brokenhearted. They will also share the "glory". If they choose to put their own interests first, then they will surely lose themselves. It is ultimately a question of choosing life. Peter forgets this for a while and has to be reminded to be true to what he has previously professed. He is not very different from the rest of us. We all need to rethink our choices and to reorder our priorities from time to time if we want to find life. September 1 was the World Day of Prayer for Creation and many churches are celebrating September 1 to October 4 (Feast of St Francis of Assisi) as a Season of Creation. At a time when life on our planet is seriously endangered, we might attend more closely to the urgent gospel challenge of living in ways that help to sustain the life of the whole Earth community.

Annual Catholic Campaign next weekend.

9-10/9. Your gift is the answer to someone's prayer! Pope Francis puts it simply: "A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just." This is the effect that your donations have had on the most vulnerable people in our community. Your gifts enable Centacare Pastoral Ministries to seek out the lost, to embrace those on the fringes of society. Your gifts help show the merciful face of our Church to those who are in need. Last year, your contributions helped more than 100,000 people access Centacare's pastoral ministries, in over 200 locations including: prisons, hospitals, psychiatric pastoral care and local indigenous communities. These ministries rely on the generosity of the faithful, as they receive little to no government funding. Thank you for making a difference in the lives of people who are sick, imprisoned, isolated and alone. Thank you for supporting the people on the frontline of the Church's mission. Parish Pastoral Council.

Reading through the document 'To 2020 and Beyond' issued by the Archdiocese - as part of the plan for the future, we live in a time and a place when we must set out on a journey into the future along paths that are not altogether clear. Like Jesus, we find ourselves in a type of desert and we need the Holy Spirit and faith to allow us to cross new unknown thresholds to find that 'something' that is greater than Solomon. We cannot stand still while the wells dry up, we must search and find new waters that will sustain the good works of the Archdiocese, its people, and the next generation. If you have any ideas or concerns within the Parish please raise them with your pastoral councillors personally or alternatively send an email to bridge@bne.catholic.net.au with a heading 'For the attention of the Pastoral Council'.

Vocation Views.

Don't run away from what you are called to be. Christians take the less travelled road. "What does it profit us if we gain the whole world but ruin ourselves in the process?"

Parishioners if they wish, may write a short piece on how they pray and share reflections online on our new parish blog www.stjosephsbrackenridge.com/blog A hard copy will be put on the noticeboard in the Church.

Invitation to Attend –

-Community Conversation 13/9. 6 – 7pm. "What is the role of the Community in Domestic Violence Prevention?" SANDBAG Community Centre, 153 Rainbow Street, Sandgate. Recently a parishioner requested the Parish Pastoral Council consider how the parish may respond pastorally and take up the opportunity to be part of a 'community conversation' into DV prevention. The Pastoral Council response was that they supported being involved and, to that end, at least one councillor will participate in the community conversation. You may like to be part of the 'community conversation', either as part of our Parish Community or as an individual member of the general community of post code 4017 and surrounding communities. RSVP: admin@sandbag.org.au by 7/9 please. Fr. Gerry Hefferan.

God of love, show us our place in the world as channels of your love for all the creatures of this earth. God of mercy, may we receive your forgiveness and convey your mercy throughout our common home. Praise be to you! Amen. St. Francis of Assisi shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace.
