St. Joseph's and St Anthony's Bracken Ridge and Bald Hills

Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A
(Matthew 25:1-13)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

How many times were you told as a child to be ready for an outing or for the expected arrival of visitors or for dinner or for something else when you simply wanted to stay as you were? Sometimes it matters little whether we are ready or not. Sometimes it really matters and today's gospel parable depicts one of those situations when it is of crucial importance to be prepared.

The imminent event is a wedding celebration. The betrothal period is over and the bridegroom has left to bring the bride from the home of her parents to his family home. Ten young women of his household will watch for the arrival of the couple and will light their way into the wedding feast. The young women in their turn can expect to be welcome at the feast. Five are well prepared for the arrival and five are not. The five who bring (olive) oil for their lamps are designated "wise" while the other five who bring no oil are said to be "foolish". Negotiating the terms of the marriage contract takes longer than expected so that the bridegroom is delayed. The young women wait and wait, then fall asleep. At midnight, the bridegroom's arrival is signalled and the young women rise to trim their lamps in readiness for their role of lighting his way.

The bride is invisible in the telling of the story, presumably because the focus must be on the bridegroom alone. Earlier in Matthew's gospel (9:15), Jesus is depicted as "the bridegroom". The attentive reader of the gospel is aware that today's parable is about Jesus and that it forms part of Matthew's end-time discourse (24:1-25:46). The delay of the bridegroom evokes the community's expectation that Jesus who has died and been raised will return at an undisclosed time. In the interim, the members are to be actively watchful and ready, living in the spirit of Matthew's first discourse (5:1-7:29) with its emphasis on right relationship. Matthew 7 concludes with reference to wise and foolish decisions: the foolish one builds on sand while the wise one builds on rock.

The behaviour of the "wise" in today's parable is as puzzling as that of the "foolish". The "foolish" fail to prepare: they have no oil and cannot expect to light the way without it. The "wise" have prepared and they receive their reward. Is there wisdom, however, in sending their "foolish" friends to buy olive oil at midnight? There are more unanswered questions than we can address in this little reflection. We can identify with both the wise and the foolish. We need the wisdom to ensure that the produce of God's Earth, represented by the olive oil, is received as gift and used in right measure or in right relationship.

Dear Fr. Gerry.

A very warm hello to you and your wonderful Parish. I am writing on behalf of St Patrick's Blackall to thank you most sincerely for the exquisite handmade Lectionary covers we have been given from your people. They have been designed and sewn with so much love and care that it is very humbling to receive such a special gift. Thank you especially to the most talented, generous person who has taken so much time to make these for us. They will be another visible sign of the beautiful connection between our Parishes. Thank you once again for your ongoing support and prayers.

God bless.

Moira Kent (Parish Liaison).

Please welcome Debbie Jones and Emma Mason as new members to the Pastoral Council. In the very near future we will farewell Matt Ritchie who has been appointed to a teaching position south of the border. Sam Turner has agreed to take up the reigns as Chairperson with Matt's departure. #### A Parish Apology.

Thank you to all those people in our community who responded to the Parish Pastoral Council's note regarding 'A Parish Apology' for the Church's actions, indifference and ignorance in child abuse. The Council met this week and discussed at length your responses and suggestions. We will move forward now and commence this important plan of action for our Parish, keeping everyone updated as we proceed. We are very grateful to you. Fr. Gerry and The Parish Pastoral Council.

WAG Update.

This weekend we are collecting for BLACKALL / TAMBO Parish where their fete will be held next Saturday. This week we received a beautiful card from the Parish extending their thanks to our Parish for the Lectionary covers that we sent up recently. It is re-produced here in this newsletter and is on our Parish Facebook page. Let's pray that they have a great day and that all our parishioners who are travelling there for the fete have a safe and happy trip.

Last week we collected $285.45 for SOUTH SUDAN to assist with well No. 11. Please hold our friends in South Sudan in your prayers as the future of the people in this country is uncertain, but with prayer, we can accomplish anything.

"Thank You" to those generous parishioners who have donated to the upcoming St. Joseph's Parish Blackall Church Fete. We would still be very happy to receive donations small or large UNTIL TODAY Sunday 19/11. Items can be placed in the box marked "Blackall" at the back of the Church or can be collected. The Fete will be held on Sat. 25/11 and due to the heat and shortage of workers, runs from 6 - 9pm. Already we have been informed by the Council that the preferred outdoor location, Banks Park has been deemed unsafe due to electrical problems. We are awaiting confirmation of the new venue. Contacts John & Sharyn Rogers, Greg and Sharyn McLagan, Maurice and Glenda Murdoch.

Bucket collection next weekend 25/26/11. Can you help our children?

I have been a member of the parish for more than 20 years and have been proud to support all the initiatives that our parish has developed, from the water wells in Sudan, the Blackall support and the help with the Iraqi and Syrian refugees.

I work at an extremely disadvantaged school and was wondering if our parish would be able to support our school by sponsoring a program offered by our Chaplain, Kyle Eckersley to give the children in our very needy community a better chance in life. Many of the children arrive at school each day with no food, having had no breakfast and with little evidence of proper care. To fully sponsor a program for a term would cost around $200. To complete training for new programs is anywhere between $600-1000. Any assistance will be greatly appreciated. Thanking you.
