Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel- 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A (Matthew 25:14-30)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

In answer to my usual greeting, “G'day Muff, what are you up to?” my polymath brother-in-law, David (nicknamed Muff), would invariably reply, “Just contemplating the eternal verities!”
The conversation that followed, usually over a glass of wine, would confirm the truth of his response. Contemplating the eternal verities was a way of life for my brother-in-law over the six decades of his life, until his all too early death 12 years ago.

As the end of the church year approaches, the liturgy presents us with texts that invite us all to consider the big questions of life and death, including the day of reckoning that will inevitably confront each one of us. Matthew's parable of the talents is part of a discourse about the final realities. It is sandwiched between the parable of the ten lamp-bearers, five of whom are unprepared for the bridegroom, and the end time judgement of the nations (next week's gospel).

The previous story has concluded with the warning: “Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” This is usually interpreted as a reference to the second coming of Christ.
Today's story continues this motif. It opens: “For it is as if a man going abroad summons his slaves and entrusts his property to them...” The slaves are entrusted with phenomenal wealth: ten talents, five talents, and one talent respectively. A talent was a measure of weight rather than a coin and one silver talent was the equivalent of 1000 days wages for an ordinary labourer.

The slaves receive no instructions, but later events indicate that the man expects a good return on his wealth. The first two slaves deliver and are invited into the joy of the master, another possible reference to the end time when God will embrace those who are faithful to their mission. The third slave buries his talent and provides a reasonable rationale: the master is a hard man who inspires a fear-ridden response in the slave. The master does not resile from this description. The seemingly unproductive slave loses even what he has and is banished to a place “where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Is the master an image of God? There are some elements in the story that may point in this direction. There are other features, however, such as the concentration of wealth in one person and the treatment of the fearful slave, that suggest this may be too simplistic an answer. In face of the present global unrest, we may find ourselves in sympathy with the third slave insofar as he challenges the violence and exploitative ways of the master. Parables are open to multiple interpretations and the eternal verities cannot be encapsulated in one story or one image. They bear ongoing reflection and call us to responsible action.

Parish Pastoral Council.

The document titled "Memory and Reconciliation: The Church and the Faults of the Past" by the International Theological Commission states that ...the Church's recognition of past wrongs is consistent with the requirements of fidelity to the Gospel. The Church recognises the human limitations and weaknesses of the various generations of Christ's disciples. Acknowledging the weaknesses of the past is an act of honesty and courage...it opens a new tomorrow for everyone... As we journey through life, let us all continue to reflect on our own human weakness, and the weakness of the various public and private institutions around us. In our own unique way we all have to 'take a stand' to bring the Gospel teaching to life. If you have any ideas or concerns within the Parish please raise them with your pastoral councillors personally or alternatively by sending an email to bridge@bne.catholic.net.au with the heading "For the attention of the Pastoral Council".

Vocation Views.

The Church year ends today. We can proclaim Christ the King because we sense our vocation as being members of Christ's Royal Family, called to serve God and one another. Pray for young people as we prepare for National Year of Youth.

WAG Update.

This weekend, we are taking a break from the usual collections for South Sudan and Blackall/Tambo. In their place, we are having a special collection for children at school in the Deception Bay area as per the article below. Last week we collected $280.60 for BLACKALL / TAMBO Parish.

Our six member team has been very busy since arriving in Blackall on Wednesday. The ladies have been unpacking all the donated items, sorting and wrapping prizes for the "Treasure Hunt" and pricing craft, Jams etc, and other saleable items. All the heavy lifting of stall props and tables has been done by the men. It is exciting to see the Novelty Stall and Ring-A-Coke Stalls take shape. In the main street on Friday morning we pre-sold tickets in the Christmas Hamper which we put together from donated and purchased items. Saturday 25th will be a busy day in Blackall as first up is the Races followed by the St Patricks Church Christmas Fete commencing at 6pm. A big "Thank You" to those who generously donated to the Fete.

Next week, we will be having a special annual collection for PETER'S PENCE. What is Peter's Pence you ask, well, the following is a direct quote from Pope Benedict: "Peter's Pence" is the most characteristic expression of the participation of all the faithful in the Bishop of Rome's charitable initiatives in favour of the universal Church. The gesture has not only a practical value, but also a strong symbolic one, as a sign of communion with the Pope and attention to the needs of one's brothers; and therefore your service possesses a refined ecclesial character". (Address to the Members of the St Peter Circle, 25 February 2006).

Enq. Terry & Rita Tolhurst

Bucket collection THIS weekend 25/26/11. Can you help our children?

I have been a member of the parish for more than 20 years and have been proud to support all the initiatives that our parish has developed, from the water wells in Sudan, the Blackall support and the help with the Iraqi and Syrian refugees.

I work at an extremely disadvantaged school and was wondering if our parish would be able to support our school by sponsoring a program offered by our Chaplain, Kyle Eckersley to give the children in our very needy community a better chance in life. Many of the children arrive at school each day with no food, having had no breakfast and with little evidence of proper care. To fully sponsor a program for a term would cost around $200. To complete training for new programs is anywhere between $600-1000. Any assistance will be greatly appreciated. Thanking you.
