St. Joseph's and St Anthony's Bracken Ridge and Bald Hills

Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel: 1st Sunday of Advent Year B - (Mark 13:33-37)

Advent is about recognising our own tendency to be less than vigilant and even to turn away when our presence is most needed. It is about allowing the grace of God to take hold in our hearts, keeping us watchful for the sake of those on the edge and for the sake of a regenerated Earth, writes Mercy Sister Veronica Lawson.

“Eyes wide open” is the proper stance for gospel people. The little parable that is the gospel reading for this first Sunday of the new liturgical year forms the conclusion to Mark’s so-called apocalyptic discourse. Apocalyptic literature emerged within Judaism in the context of crisis or persecution. It was intended to provide hope in the midst of disaster: God’s coming can reverse the sufferings of the present. The Markan discourse is delivered as a farewell teaching to the inner circle of Jesus’ disciples. The concluding verse indicates that it is intended for a wider audience, however: “what I say to you, I say to all....” Like Peter, James, and John, Christian disciples through the ages are invited to stay awake, to be on the lookout, to be alert.

This cycle of the liturgical year begins and ends with Mark 13 and a focus on the end of the present order of things. It may seem strange to begin the year with such a reflection. Is Advent not a time of preparation for Christmas, for the coming of the Christ child into the world? Mark has no account of the birth of Jesus. His gospel begins with the immediate preparation for the adult ministry of Jesus. From the very outset, his interest is in the coming of God’s reign of justice and compassion. That is, in fact, what Advent is about: living in hopeful expectation that God’s dream for a transformed world might be realised.

The parable of the watchful gatekeeper forms the conclusion to a farewell discourse that the Markan Jesus addresses to his disciples. The disciples are told to be alert and watchful through the four watches of the Roman night: in the evening, at midnight, at cockcrow, and at dawn. The parable thus foreshadows aspects of Jesus’ suffering that was to be compounded by the abandonment of his closest friends. Peter, James, and John will fall asleep in Gethsemane. The disciples will all disperse and Peter will deny him. We find our own experience mirrored in that of the disciples. It is easy to lose hope in the face of overwhelming violence and even to lose focus.

Advent is about recognising our own tendency to be less than vigilant and even to turn away when our presence is most needed. It is about allowing the grace of God to take hold in our hearts, keeping us watchful for the sake of those on the edge and for the sake of a regenerated Earth. Most of us would agree that our Earth communities are in crisis. We need to be alert to causes as well as to consequences so that the cycles of violence might eventually be broken. Our gospel asks no less of us.

Parish Pastoral Council.

As the year ends we say a final farewell to Matt Ritchie – chairperson of the Parish Pastoral Council. Matt has been a steady hand and a good shepherd to the Council in our deliberations concerning the pastoral care needs of our Parish. Since the time Jesus gathered the Apostles around him to further sow the seeds of faith, localized pastoral works continue to be of critical importance to the Church's ongoing existence throughout the world. Faith in action means we will continue to have future generations taking up the Good News message and applying their hands at doing good social and economic works at a local level. All societies need this cohesive glue to survive and prosper - physically and spiritually. Let us congratulate Sam Turner as he takes up the reins of chairperson. If you have any ideas or concerns within the Parish please raise them with your pastoral councillors personally or alternatively by sending an email to bridge@bne.catholic.net.au with the heading "For the attention of the Pastoral Council".

WAG Update.

This weekend we are having a special annual collection for PETER'S PENCE. What is Peter's Pence you may well ask? Following is a direct quote from Pope Benedict: "Peter's Pence" is the most characteristic expression of the participation of all the faithful in the Bishop of Rome's charitable initiatives in favour of the universal Church. The gesture has not only a practical value, but also a strong symbolic one, as a sign of communion with the Pope and attention to the needs of one's brothers; and therefore your service possesses a refined ecclesial character". (Address to the Members of the St Peter Circle, 25 February 2006). BLACKALL/TAMBO. Three weeks prior to the Blackall Fete our Team was concerned about the small amount of stock we had for the stall. But after Fr. Gerry spoke about it at Mass we were overwhelmed with donations. Kerry Lewry surprised us with his arrival in Blackall and we greatly appreciated his assistance before, during and after the Fete. Fete Convenor Tony Hauff was very pleased with the outcome of the St. Patrick's Church Fete, both socially and financially. Combined total raised by our Novelty Stall, Ring-A-Coke and Christmas Hamper Raffle was approx. $2000. Without the help of our generous parishioners and friends, this great result would not have been possible. The people of Blackall send their heartfelt "Thanks" as do John & Sharyn Rogers, Greg & Sharyn McLagan and Maurice & Glenda Murdoch. Effective 6th January, Blackall's Priest Fr. Bill Senn will become Parish Priest of Longreach. His replacement will be Fr. Jayanthi Maddala. We wish Fr Bill well and look forward to working with Fr Jayanthi.

Memorandum.

Members of our parish community who have lost a loved one in recent months, may choose to have a small wooden cross placed in the Blessed Sacramental Chapel for a period of time, (perhaps 12 months).. The Chapel can be accessed at any time, and families may find this a place of comfort during those early days of grieving.. Crosses are available on request. Enq. Barbara Masterman 321 9651. The crosses have brought much comfort to our families over the past few years. Unfortunately, the available wall space in the chapel is limited and only a few spare places remain. If your family members have been remembered there for an extended time and you feel ready, we respectfully request that you take your loved one's cross or crosses now and find a prayerful restful area in your home, where you can continue to spend time with them.

The Catholic Leader. Always an interesting read.
