Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-2nd Sunday of Lent

Year B

(Mark 9:2-10)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

The wilderness was the geographical and key symbolic focus of last week's gospel story. This week, the focus is a mountain. Wilderness and mountain remind us that God's Earth itself is the locus of mystery and grace, the place of Earth-divine encounter. The mountain, like the wilderness, links Mark's story of Jesus with the story of the Israelites. Moses' encounter with God on the mountain of Sinai was a defining moment in the life of the people: the Israelites entered into covenant with God at this mountain and received the Law that was to guide their lives as a people. Some centuries later, at a time of crisis in Israel's life, the prophet Elijah returned to this mountain and experienced the presence of God in the gentle breeze.

In the gospel passage for today, Jesus takes Peter, James and John up the mountain and is "transfigured" before them and "his clothes become dazzling white". In the Book of Revelation, white clothes come to symbolise the clothing of martyrs, of those who die for their faith. Elijah and Moses, the key prophetic figures of Israel, appear and enter into dialogue with Jesus, God's definitive prophet. The "transfiguration" seems to point to a time in Jesus' ministry when he accepts his likely fate. If he continues to challenge oppression and injustice, he is certain to encounter opposition, even death. He struggles with that realisation in the "wilderness" and comes to terms with what it involves on this unidentified mountain.

The voice of God reaffirms the identity of Jesus that was announced in the opening words of the gospel and proclaimed at his baptism in the Jordan. It calls for a response from the disciples who have ascended the mountain in his company: "Listen to him". In the two preceding scenes, Jesus has spoken of the suffering that he and his followers will have to face. These words are crucial to an understanding, not only of Jesus, but of what it means to follow him. They seem to fall on deaf ears.

Peter wants to hold on to the experience of glory, to "make tents" and settle down. He prefers not to face the difficulties involved in fidelity to the mission. But that is not the way of discipleship. Like Jesus and his companions, we too need the occasional glimpse of final victory. We also need the courage and the good sense to return from the mountain and follow through on the path that brings life, despite the pain. We can feel overwhelmed by the enormity of the challenges facing us and by the opposition we sometimes experience. If we are to maintain the struggle for a sustainable, safe, and peace-filled world, we have to "listen" to the invitation of Jesus and come to terms with the personal and communal costs involved in a gospel way of life.

Parish Pastoral Council.

A number of Iraq and Syrian refugee families living on the north side of Brisbane and connected to this Parish continue to need assistance with many of the day-to-day tasks associated with living in a new country. Things like conversational English, filling in detailed/complex government forms, applying for drivers licences, tutoring, etc we generally don't see as daunting, but for many people who have only been in Australia for 6, 12, 18, months, etc these tasks continue to be remain very challenging. The Parish is urgently seeking to build a ready pool of local volunteers who can be 'on call' or who can make themselves available to assist people with these particular tasks and/or conversing with them in English so that they obtain a higher level of proficiency. Another need is transport to and from Sunday 9am Mass. Please contact the Parish Office with your details on how you can help. Our youth are organizing a retreat later in the year for youth across the Deanery...much planning is currently being undertaken.

This year marks the 175 anniversary of the Catholic Church in Brisbane. If you have any ideas or concerns within the Parish please raise them with your pastoral councillors personally or alternatively by sending an email to bridge@bne.catholic.net.au with the heading "For the attention of the Pastoral Council".

Royal Commission Information.

As you would be aware, the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse has now concluded. On 15 December 2017 the Commission presented a final report to the Governor-General, detailing the culmination of a five-year inquiry into institutional responses to child sexual abuse and related matters. The Report was released publicly on the same day and may be read at <https://www.childabuseroyalcommission.gov.au/final-report> Francis Sullivan (CEO Truth, Justice & Healing Council TJHC) <http://www.tjhcouncil.org.au/> will finalise his report by end of March 2018. The Truth, Justice and Healing Council was formed to oversee the Church's engagement with the Royal Commission and will shortly be disbanded on completion of its work. The parish commenced 'regular' Parish Newsletter updates – usually weekly - on 1 March 2013 and have written 199 updates to date. The parish will continue to closely monitor for new information, relating to the Commission, and is committed to providing you with updates of news, as it becomes available. Thank you for your feedback and support.

Vocation Views.

If you need an example of a person responding to a vocational call, look at Abraham – called in old age to leave his country, father a child, then asked to sacrifice the child. What faith! Vocation is a risky response to a unique call from God.

Student improvement in Literacy continues to be one of our main school goals this year. As a BCE school, we have set ourselves aspirational and yet, we believe, achievable targets for student achievement in reading and writing across the school for 2018. To arrive at these targets, we analysed student achievement data from 2017 in conjunction with further local information. Whilst our aim is for all students to achieve standards recommended for their year level we believe the targets set out below are achievable for 2018. The First P&F Meeting for the year will be held in the Staffroom Wed. 28/2 at 7:30pm and come and join the party! Everyone is welcome to attend. Wednesday Morning 'Cuppa'.
