St. Joseph's and St Anthony's Bracken Ridge and Bald Hills

Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-Passion/Palm Sunday

Year B

(Mark 11:1-10; Mark 14:1-15:47)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

Mark 11:1-10

Mark's account of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem is more restrained and less victorious in tone than the other gospel accounts. In keeping with Mark's gospel as a whole, it forms part of the relentless journey of Jesus, the suffering Messiah, towards Jerusalem the place of his death. The longed-for liberation will come about in Jerusalem, through powerlessness, suffering and death rather than through the exercise of might and power.

Mark 14:1-15:47

The gospel account of the suffering and death of Jesus opens with the story of an insightful but unnamed woman who pours out healing ointment on the head of Jesus. We might reflect on the Eucharistic character of her actions of breaking and pouring and of Jesus' assurance that what she has done will be told in memory of her. She did "what she could". The story of her support for Jesus is sandwiched between two stories of opposition: an assassination plot on the part of the religious authorities, and the foreshadowing of Jesus' betrayal at the hands of a close follower. Status does not guarantee goodness or insight.

As the story unfolds, we hear that, despite his earlier instruction to "stay awake", Jesus' closest followers fall asleep when he most needs them. Worse than that, they betray, deny, and abandon him. Some Galilean women remain faithful. They have followed him and looked after him on the long journey from Galilee to Jerusalem. They become witnesses to his death and burial. These women will also discover the empty tomb and take the message of the resurrection to the male disciples. A foreign passer-by, Simon, whose sons are known to the Markan community, shoulders part of the burden. An ordinary Roman soldier realises and proclaims that Jesus is of God.

The story has come full circle: the first verse of the gospel announced the beginning of the good news of Jesus, the Christ and the Son of God. Now the reader understands what it means to make such a proclamation. The final chapter is to be celebrated next weekend. The mystery is to be lived every day of every week. As we enter into the holiest week of the liturgical year, we might consider our call to bring the power of Christ's redeeming love to those who suffer crucifixion in our own times: the more-than-human Earth remain community that suffers the effects of climate change; the desperate asylum seekers who on Manus Island and Nauru; the war-torn lands of Yemen and Syria.

For stories of hope in the face of despair, you may like to visit the Mercy Works website (mercyworks.org.au). It is all too easy to deny, betray, and abandon the suffering other. Like the woman who poured out the healing ointment on the head of Jesus, we also must do what we can.

Wag Update.

Let us continue to pray for the people of BLACKALL/TAMBO Parish, and of SOUTH SUDAN as we put our focus on Caritas Lenten Appeal. The buckets and watering cans will appear after Easter.

St. Joseph's School.

The building of our new administration centre is finally going to come to fruition. Herron Coorey Builders will take possession of the site from next Monday. The new administration block will be on the site of the current administration centre but on a larger foot print. This will mean significant upheaval for the next six months. The existing administration will be demolished over the Easter break to allow the new building to proceed. The most significant changes to affect students and parents is the closure of the central walkway outside of the current administration. This means that next week, at some stage, temporary fencing will force us to walk via the FBCC and down the ramp to reach the school centre area. A temporary administration area will be set up in the two rooms on the lower level of the two storey classroom building. The room closest the central walkway will be the main office contact point. Flexibility and patience will be key words in the coming months. The Trivia/Casino Fun Night date is Fri. 27/4. Tickets are available from the School Office. The Coles Sports for Schools Programme is back, so please if you shop at Coles, collect the Vouchers for us.

B/Ridge Uniting Church Multicultural -

PALMS.

Get out there and be the Church, "bruised, hurting and dirty". Do you have teaching, medical, business, admin. Or trade skills? Have you ever thought about sharing them with our Global family to reduce poverty and make a fairer world? Palms volunteers help build capacity of overseas communities over the long term. They don't do quick fixes on short stays, but immerse themselves in another culture and exchange skills within trusting mutually beneficial relationships. Right now, schools, clinics and community organisations in the Pacific, Asia and Africa seek volunteers to mentor their local personnel and develop communities sustainability. Can't commit just yet but would like a look? Try a short Encounter to Timor, Leste or Samoa. Enq.
