Reflection.

Reflection on the Gospel-22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B
(Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

After a lengthy detour over the past six weeks into the gospel of John with its focus on Jesus as the Bread of Life and the Bread of Wisdom, we return to Mark's gospel and a legal dispute about ritual purity. The parties to the dispute are Jesus, the Pharisees, and some of the scribes or teachers of the law. [It is worth noting that Mark's non-Jewish readers, at a later time and in another place, need to be given detailed information about certain Jewish traditions].

At issue for the scribes and Pharisees in the story is the failure of Jesus' disciples to respect their oral tradition, in this instance to perform ritual washings before eating. From their perspective, the disciples are not "walking" according to the tradition of the elders. For the Markan Jesus, "the command of God" is paramount, not some distorted interpretation of it. He offers a hard-hitting counter-critique of their attitude to law. He calls them "hypocrites" and informs them that the condemnation of the prophet Isaiah was intended for them. They have so distorted God's law, substituting their own observances for the "commandment of God" that their prayer amounts to nothing more than lip-service, their hearts are far from God, and their worship is worthless! For Jesus, there are criteria other than such observances for determining who is clean or unclean. He has already declared the leper clean (Mk 1:41-45). For Jesus, the "heart" is the locus of purity and impurity. For him as for all his people, the heart was the seat of the intellect and of morality as well as of the emotions. In the kin-dom of God, therefore, one's thoughts, desires, and intentions render one clean or unclean, not one's attention to hygiene. The latter is important of course, but is peripheral in the grand scheme of things. It is worth applying the criteria provided at the end of the passage to discover whether or not our "hearts" are near or distant from our God.

The real-life Pharisees of the first century were the respected teachers of God's law. It is imperative that stories such as we find in today's gospel are not used to denigrate the Jews or to pit Christianity over against Judaism. We have to keep reminding ourselves that time and again we are dealing with in-house debates between Jewish groups.

Finally, this episode, with its attention to ritual washing, raises the issue of the right use of water, that precious earth element without which there would be no life at all on our planet. Plastic free July this year alerted many of us to the problem that the plastic bottling of water has brought to the future of life on our planet. It may be time to buy a "Keep Cup" and reaffirm our commitment to protecting God's creation.

Car Parking.

While the school is undergoing a building programme, it will be necessary to walk around the fencing as per the signs. The carparks closest to the church will be reserved for Senior parishioners and those with mobility issues. It will be necessary for many of us to use street parking. Please do not park other vehicles in when parking in the Church carpark, as people need to be able to leave in case of emergency. Please only park in the allocated spaces. There are many side streets available for parking. Providing the ground is not too wet, parking will also be available on the school oval (off Phillips St.) Thank you for your patience and understanding. Fr. Gerry Hefferan.

... "Both Lives Matter..."

From the Archdiocese of Brisbane: For the second time in two years, the Queensland Parliament will debate whether to make abortion legal. The draft bill will allow abortion until the day that a baby is born – late-term abortions will be legal in Queensland as long as two doctors agree that it "in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed". This will mean that social reasons will be enough for a legal abortion of a full-term baby. The Archdiocese wants to ensure that Queenslanders understand this new bill and have time to consider it. We believe that both lives matter and the bill should not go ahead. Visit our website to learn more:

<https://community.actonit.com.au/aob/>

Thank you to all parishioners who have already signed the petition stating "Both Lives Matter". If you haven't had a chance yet, please consider taking the time to add your name to the petitions on the paper table today. Petitions from last week and this weekend will be submitted to the Archdiocese on Monday 27 August.

Each month in parish life can bring new opportunities and challenges.

Sister Dorothy continues parish visitations in the parish. Her available days are Thursday and Friday. This month there will be a parish focus on prayer. Including sacred space in our homes and home prayer resource suggestions. In October there will be two nights for the Sacrament of Confirmation. We pray for each of the children and families. We give thanks to God for the many blessings that we have received.

Child Protection Sunday provides an opportunity for Archdiocesan parishes, ministries, agencies and services to highlight the activities they undertake to care for and protect children. The Office for Safeguarding Services has collected resources to support parishes and faith communities in the lead-up to Child Safeguarding Sunday. These resources may be accessed at: <http://bit.ly/AOBSafeguardingresources> To assist with preparation for Child Protection Week the National Committee for Professional Standards has provided Homily Notes and Prayers of the Faithful provided by Fr Andrew Hamilton SJ. St. Joseph's School.

As part of the celebration of the Year of Youth, and in response to the Bishops' challenge, St Joseph's School will host on Mon. 3/9. the IMARE (Identity, Mission and Religious Education Services) formation event, led by Steph Unger (Project Officer Student Formation), for Years 5 and 6 students called: Spreading Joy, Be a 5th Gospel. This event is designed to open new horizons for spreading joy in three distinct ways: For Years 5 and 6 it will: empower and inspire young people in Years 5 and 6 as they prepare to leave the familiarity and comfort of primary schooling and embark on a new journey as a high schooler; help them discover Gospel messages of joy that resonate with them and form their own messages of joy they want to share with others; provide a platform to share their messages of joy with Church, BCE and Community leaders; provide an opportunity for the students to celebrate their faith with like-minded students from across the BCE system; provide an opportunity for the students to experience the life of the Church as witnessed through peer-peer ministry by the co-facilitators; empower and inspire Year 10 and 11 students to be co-facilitators of the formation day. This formation day has been designed as a living liturgy. Each element of the program, from the initial welcome and setting up of the sacred space, through to the lunch breaks, group activities and final commissioning build on each other to form one day-long liturgy. Being a living liturgy is the foundation of the entire formation experience, as the students come to realise that they can spread Jesus' joyful message all day every day through their words and actions. The challenge they will be left with at the end of the day, is to become a 5th Gospel going out into the world, spreading their message of joy.
