

Sunday Church Service Massacre in Syria, June 2025

We pray to you Jesus,

for those who were killed in Mar Elias Church in Dweilaa, Damascus.

We pray to you Jesus,

for the people receiving urgent medical treatment, and for health care personnel assisting them.

We pray for the families of the bereaved and injured, and for their friends and community members.

We pray to you Jesus, for the emergency services, as they seek to provide humanitarian support, and to prevent further tragedy.

We pray to you Jesus,

for our sisters and brothers deeply traumatized.

We pray for Syrian families in other nations as they await news of loved ones.

We pray in solidarity.

We pray for our extended family.

We pray for peace.

Amen.
